

Let Examples in English

- Let me do my homework.
- Let us play hockey.
- Let us go to the fair.
- Let me leave the place.
- Let us learn computer programming.
- Let us go to the canal as it is fine.
- Let you all be gone before 6.
- Let no one go out until I come.
- Let them think about their future.
- Let him work in any profession he likes.
- Let us make the decision now.
- Let the children watch TV.
- Let us go to the new park.
- Let us learn Arabic.
- Let the people have true democracy.
- Let the students go home early.
- Let me come in.
- Let us play cricket.

Use of 'Let' in Grammar

'Let' can mean 'allow' or 'give permission':

☞ Our boss let us leave early.

We can also use 'let' to mean 'allow' in the sense of 'make something possible':

☞ This student card lets you book discount flights.

Let's + infinitive is often used to make a suggestion:

☞ Let's get some coffee.

Let Examples Sentences

- Let me do my homework.
- Let us play hockey.
- Let us go to the fair.
- Let me leave the place.
- Let us learn computer programming.
- Let us go to the canal as it is fine.
- Let you all be gone before 6.
- Let no one go out until I come.
- Let them think about their future.
- Let him work in any profession he likes.
- Let us make the decision now.
- Let the children watch TV.
- Let us go to the new park.
- Let us learn Arabic.
- Let the people have true democracy.
- Let the students go home early.
- Let me come in.
- Let us play cricket.

